CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, August 27 .- | Special Telegram to the Bgg. |- The wheat market was inexpressibly duil to-day. The absence of speculation and a forced liquidation of stock of about 5,000,000 bushels of California wheat In Liverpool constitute the bear features. The rest of the news or rather the facts, for there is no news-are favorable to the bull side. Receipts at primary winter wheat markets continue light and the forward movement towards eastern and old world markets keeps up without the slightest diminution. Clearances from the three principal Atlantic ports for six days, foot up to 1,405,000 bushels (about the same as last week). Western points receipts for the same period aggregate 1,800,300 bushels against 1,945,000 bushels last week, and western points shipments for the week exceed those of last week by nearly 300,000 bushels. The movement from lake points has been especially liberal and promises to continue so. Toledo alone reporting engagements ahead for 416,000 bushels. There is a prospect for another decrease of nearly 1,000,000 bushels in the visible. Every hour and minute of the day brings confirmation of the bad harvest reports from the northwest. There was some quiet buying by good houses to-day, but not nough to lift the market out of the rut. The one was too strong, however, to deter short selling, and in the absence from the close of between fifty and sixty of the most active and influential local scalpers and speculators trading in the pit was reduced to its narrowest limits. Fluctuations in price were only c. The average and close was, however, est limits. Fluctuations in price were only 3/c. The average and close was, however, higher than yesterday by 4/c. September opened at 69c, ranged at 69c/cope and closed at 69c. October opened at 70½c, ranged at 70½c/cand closed at 70½c/cand dat 69c. December opened at 73½c, ranged at 73½c/cand 73½c high, closing at 73½c. December opened at 73½c, ranged at 73½c/cand 73½c high, closing at 73½c.

There was something more than the bare suggestion of activity in corn, and after the first hour the tone of the market was weak. September opened at 41½c, October at 41½c, and May at 45c. The market eased off a bare shade and then firmed up on good local buying, September advancing to 41½c/cand first hour in corner of the hopeful features. The duliness in the speculative market for oats to-day was most profound. Traders showed no interest in the deal and the limited business transacted was at a very low range of prices, the general tone being easy and in buyers favor. Leading features closed ½c under yesterday's latest bids.

In the provision pit the week closed in a quiet manner. Traders of all classes showed remarkable indifference and the day passed with little or no stir, or even a sufficient change in values to occasion comment; Fluctuations were also confined to a small range. January closed at $12.22½ for pork, $6.52½ for lard and $6.25 bid for short ribs. Near trading, as usual, was confined to lard and short ribs, with September the leading delivery. For that month lard closed at

Near trading, as usual, was confined to lard and short ribs, with September the leading delivery. For that month lard closed at yesterday's price—$6.40—and short ribs 2½c easier, or at $7.90. October lard was 5c higher than September, while October short ribs rested at the ruling quotation for September. tember.

FINANCIAL

NEW YORK, August 27. - [Special Telegram to the BEE. |-STOCKS-The Increased activity in stocks was accompanied by heavy liquidation by the various large and small pools, who were forced out by constant raiding by the Newport bear party that had control of the market and worked it up and down-mostly down. Sensational rumors were freely circulated and the failure of one stock house and a large gas fixture manufacturing firm materially assisted in the depression. The Gould stocks were vigorously atneked, especially the Missouri Pacific, and these, with other causes were used to break the market, and after being pounded severely they were cast aside. It was the hardest week for the "Fancies," especially those in the south, witnessed this year. From all outward appearances there was a determined effort to shake out several large holders of Reading, Richmond Terminal, the Oregons and the Northern Pacifics, and although the trading was the heaviest in those stocks, the ble operators held their securities despite the fact that the prices of a majority of them were forced lower than at any previous time this year. Several small rallies occurred, but they were only natural and due to the covering by shorts who had large profits and deemed it advisable to take them. Deacon O. White, who was with the bears at the ening, changed to the bull side Thursday and it was said that the deacon and the Bateman party had fallen out, the former forming a bull pool with Work, Warmser and Pearsail to buy stocks on all slumps. It was also sall to buy stocks on all slumps. It was also asserted with considerable positiveness that a big buil pool had been formed, chiefly by Londoners, with $20,000,000. The shorts who made the big drives at Reading and the Gould stocks rushed to cover and as their trading was the chief feature of the market Saturday, and a better feeling prevailed and railies extending to 2 per cent were recorded, but on the general list they were only 14 to 14 per cent. The bank statement was a fair one, snowing an increase in the reserve of 8690,500. The amount held above legal requirements is low, being $4,865,700 and the total reserve $91,236,400. Compared with last Saturday's close the net declines extend to 514 points, Oregon Transcontinental 414, Missouri Pacific 4%, Northern Pacific prefe.red 414, Reading 324, Lackawanna 114, Northwestern 134, St. Paul 134 and Western Union 156 per cent.

In New York the dealers in crockery are In New York the dealers in crockery are making a protest against the tea men, who are giving away or selling crockery below cost. The same gift scheme has been practiced to some extent in this city, but more especially by the dealers in baking powders. The crockery dealers, however, have not felt the competition, if it may be called such, so severely as their brethren in New York, which is due to the rapid growth of the crockery business incident to the rapid development of the country. There is, however, a growing sentiment among dealers in all lines against the gift system, which has been destructive to so many business enterprises destructive to so many business enterprise and is demoralizing to the trade generally.
